NEW YORK.

THE FALL FASHIONS—OPENING DAY—THE NEW BONNETS—DRESSES—SLEEVELESS AND OTHER COATS.

The New York correspondent of the Wilmington Herald, under date of September 23, writes:

And now, that nobody may say that I devote too much attention to politics, I am going to place before your lady readers all the novelties in dress. We begin, of course, with the bonnet. All the old bonnets are now old fashioned. The new bonnet is very odd, very different from that of last season, and, in my opinion, very ugly. The front is close and round, something like the old cottage bonnet, but very small. Stiff, flat crowns are again in fashion, but not capes. Instead of a cape a straight band is used and this renders waterfalls impossible. If soft crowns are worn they are puffed up above the hat instead of hanging down as of yore. The trimming is all on the top of the bonnet, and the stiffer it stands the handsomer it is. Green and white are the favorite colors. Turbans and round hats, in new patterns, are still in vogue and very pretty. Prices are as large as the bonnets are small. Seventy-five dollars is thought not unreasonable. Nothing wearable can be bought at a good milliners under twenty-five.

Dresses have changed but little. They are still profusely trimmed. Cord trimming is the rage, especially with gold and silver cord. The best style is to have the dress, underskirt and basque of the same material as I described to you in a previous letter. Sashes are very popular. Wide belts have disappeared. All style of waists are worn—the round, the pointed, the basque and the coat-tail—and the most odd are the most fashionable. Sleeves are worn very tight to the arm and with caps. Wide sleeves of all sorts are completely obsolete. The skirt is longer than ever and more profusely trimmed. Fluting is out of fashion, except for the underskirt. I need scarcely add that all sorts of materials cost more than ever, and that the extravagance of the ladies increases in proportion. Finally, sacks, circulars, and coats are all fashionable this season; but circulars less so than the rest. A novelty is a sleeveless coat, showing the sleeves of the dress of a different color. It is curious but will hardly be adopted here. All that I have told you, my lady friends, is upon the very highest fashionable authority, and you may rely upon it implicitly.

General Lee once Offered the Command of the U. S. Amies.

Hon. Montgomery Blair is out in a Washington paper in a letter eight colums long. In the course of this letter he mentions the following circumstances:

"Let me observe here: It was the fall of Sumter that produced on the instant the ordinance of secession and filled Virginia with troops from the Gulf States to carry it before the people. Its effect upon ordinary men may be conceived by the influence it exerted over General Lee. My father was authorized by the President and Mr. Cameron, Secretary of War, to converse with General Lee and ascertain whether he would accept the command of our army in the field. The latter was written for and he met my father at my house, where they conversed for an hour or more. It was a few days before the ordinance was passed. Gen. Lee concluded the conversation by saying; 'Secession was anarchy,' and added: 'if he owned the four million of slaves in the South, he would cheerfully sacrifice them to the Union; but he did not know how he could draw his sword on his native State. He said he would see General Scott on the subject before he decided.' A committee from the Virginia Convention, while the General and my father conversed, were hunting for him through the city. They met on his leaving the house. He repaired with them to consult with the Convention, as I have since learned, about some mode of settlement. The fall of Sumter settled the question for him and the Convention."

A few days ago the New York Journal of Commerce said:

"It would be, we repeat it, more sensible for the people of New England, who are given to philantropy and misanthropy (for the lover of the negro slave is the hater of the white slave owner.) if they would devote some attention to their home slaveries and sorrows.

It would be curious to know the rates at which the poor are now sold in the Eastern States. Can any one furnish statistics of this market?

The Hartford (Conn) Times answers the inquiry:

"In Connecticut, the State and town white poor (in many towns) are let out to the lowest bidders, and we find that the State poor have been let for $1,200 to $2,000 a year."

The La Crosse (Wis.) Democrat comments as follows:

"What's the use of writing about the poor white people of New England? God cursed them with Anglo-Saxon blood! Had these poor wretches, whose bones are sold to doctors, and whose lean bowels are made into speculations, been black, all over the country, their case would be presented to the people for interference. But they are simply poor, half-starved, white wretches.

A man who has been cultivating tea, as an experiment, since 1850, writes to the Savannah Herald, that the most of his plants grow finely that his tea is of good quality, and the plans will do quite as well in Georgia as in their native country. The plants require no culture after the third year. If well taken care of by that time they will be large enough to commence the manufacture of tea from them. The yield to the acre is from three to four hundred pounds, and the plants produce good crops for eighteen or twenty years. The growth of tea is not affected by dry or wet weather, or by storms, and insects will not molest the plants.

Such a large number of negroes have accumulated at Memphis as to compel General Tillotson, Superintendent of Freedmen, to issue orders for them to return to their masters, under pain of being arrested as vagabonds, but assuring them that he will certainly protect them in all contracts they make for their labor.

WM. E. PELL, Editor.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1865.

OUR TERMS.

THE SENTINEL is issued every morning (Sunday excepted) at the following rates:

For six months,	$5,00
For one month,	1,00
" two months,	2,00

Our terms are invariably in advance. The scarcity of money however, obliges us to say to our friends, that responsible and prompt persons who desire the Sentinel need not delay sending us their names at once, who can send us the Cash in a short time. The money may be sent us by the Rail Road Conductors or the Express Company.

"Landed Qualifications for Members of the General Assembly."

All the interests of man whether material or spiritual, present or future, are estimated by their durability. Great value is seldom attached to fleeting, uncertain objects. Hence it is that all prudent men seek permanent investments in those securities, least liable to fluctuation or change.

With the people of the South, the idea of property—that which men can rely upon for future dependence and support, is narrowed down to a small compass. The hey-day visions of interest and property for ourselves and our children, which formerly passed before us, based upon the many stalwart laborers we could bring into our fields, and the rich and heavy crops with which their labors filled our barns, have all vanished.—Our hopes for the future rest entirely upon the stability of our right of property in the real estate held by our people. And shall the tenure by which we hold our real estate, be made the foot-ball of popular opinion and subject to the mutations of progress now so blatantly ventilated? We trust not.

We have seldom been so surprised, and we confess disappointed, as we were on yesterday, to read the demagogical article headed by the caption which we have placed to this article, in the Court Journal, when we remembered that our old friend, Col. Cannon, held the responsible position of principal editor to that paper. Has he forgotten days of yore? Does his new position force him to ignore entirely the records of his past history? Or is he so plastic that he allows some luckless adventurer to plow with his heifer? Are such expressions as "privileged classes" "odious relics," "inconsistent with the spirit of the age," and such like phrases, indicating a purpose to swing loose from the time-honored fastnesses of the organic law of the land, drawn from the horn-books of his political education or the vocabularies of his teachers in political science?

But let us not mislead the reader who does not consult the Court Journal. The Standard of yesterday, in its wonted style of dictatorship, enjoins upon the State Convention now in session, to abolish all property qualification whatever, in order to seats in either branch of the General Assembly, as an "odious relic of past ignorance and tyranny not to be tolerated." It moreover claims by an "almost unanimous vote of the people of the State," that the provision of the old Constitution requiring fifty acres of land to qualify a voter for the Senate, was abolished.

We deem it a work of supererogation to attempt to defend our fathers against the ridiculous and impertinent charge of "ignorance and tyranny." Such charges come from upstart witlings, whose claims to intelligence are as shallow as the rivulet which sluggishly moves in its bed during a season of prolonged drought, and whose wisdom is but bluster and gas.

The assertion that free suffrage was incorporated in the Constitution of the State by an almost unanimous vote, is incorrect. There has always been a very considerable portion of the people of the State, who were and are opposed to it.—The intelligence of North Carolina to-day would if possible, strike it from the Constitution and restore the old regime. It is remarkable, that we have heard no Democrat for several years defend the measure as a wise one. It was foisted upon the State by a stroke of policy of a dexterous leader, at a time when the politics of the State were about to shift, and hence its success.

The assertion that the people of the State desire to strike out that section of the Constitution which requires a property qualification for members of the Legislature, we consider extremely dubious. The considerate, thoughtful portion of our people, are not adverse to that most essential feature of our republican government "taxation and representation." The real estate interest of the State has always been the principal source of revenue. At present and for the future, it must be almost the only reliance of the State. Its protection therefore, is of the highest importance to the future prosperity of the State, and the simple suggestion at a time like this, when the foundations of social order and material economy are upturned—when every material interest of the people is jostled—when the spirit of licentiousness and a spurious progress is rampant in the land, that the property of the people of the State shall be left to the hazards of the times—to the so-called intelligence of the people—to be jeopardied by the agrarian tendencies of the age, is a proposition so monstrous, that no sober minded man, can for a moment brook it. But our space forbids our pursuing the subject further to day.

A GOOD APPOINTMENT.—General William Mahone has been appointed General Superintendent of the Norfolk and Petersburg and the South Side Railroad.

Oath of Office.

The moderate press of the North and many of the presses of the South, are urging strenuously upon the people of the Southern States, the election of such members to the United States Congress from the several Congressional Districts only, as can subscribe to the oath now required by the act of 1862, of all officers of the United States.

No one is more anxious to promote a settlement of our difficulties with the North and the government, than we are—one who would make greater sacrifices of prejudice or feeling, to secure restorstion and the admission of our members into the National Congress. We could most heartily rejoice that we had in every District, the man who exactly suits us and would equally suit the radicals of the North, if it were possible.

But have we the men? Can there be found in the several Districts a gentleman of sufficient ability, known to be true to North Carolina, and upon whom his constituency can rely, who can take the oath required? If so we are ready to favor the selection of such men. But we cannot become a party in duplicity or imposition upon the government. It is possible that we have men who can take the oath, but are they the men who can represent a North Carolina constituency properly, at the present time? Is it honorable or right to send men to Congress who cannot truly represent our people, for the purpose of securing admission to the State under such circumstances? We have not at hand the oath precisely, which will be administered to members of Congress, but the following oath which must be subscribed to by Post Masters, Mail conductors, &c., is substantially the same. Let it be read and pondered:

"I, ——— ———, being appointed ——— at ——— in the County of ———, and State of———, do swear———that I will faithfully perform all the duties required of me, and abstain from everything forbidden by the laws in relation to the establishment of the Post Office and Post Roads within the United States; and that I will honestly and truly account for and pay over any moneys belonging to the said United States which may come into my possession or control. And I do further solemnly swear ——— that I have never voluntarily borne arms against the United States since I have been a citizen thereof; that I have voluntarily given no aid, counsel, or encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility thereto; that I have neither sought, nor accepted, nor attempted to exercise the functions of any office whatever under any authority, or pretended authority, in hostility to the United States; that I have not yielded a voluntary support to any pretended government, authority, power or constitution within the United States, hostile or inimical thereto. And I do further swear ——— that, to the best of my knowledge and ability, I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign or domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter: So help me God."

Now the last clause of the oath is essential to a proper discharge of any office under the government. We would not vote for a man who would not or could not take that part of the oath, but the second clause contains the objectionable matter to which it will be difficult to find many who can subscribe. There are persons in the State who can take the oath and who are filling well other positions, but persons who can represent the State in Congress, who can take it, will be difficult to find.

The Daily News.

This is the title of a new daily just issued in Goldsboro' by Mr. J. B. Whitaker and edited by our old friend Col. Stephen D. Pool. We extend to it most heartily the hand of welcome, and wish them far more success than these pinching times promise.

Col. Pool defines his position in the following honest, straight forward manner. We honor the editor for this. There is none of the craven, truckling, spaniel-like spirit about him, and yet we will stand by his loyalty to the bitter end.—Every true Union man will admire this spirit.—We have said frequently, that among the true friends of the Union, there will be found none truer than those who stood up faithfully to the South and to the State, to the last. But hear Col. Pool:

OUR POSITION.—The editor of this paper having recently occupied the position of an officer in the army of the Confederate States, it is fitting that he should briefly allude to the past, that his present position may be correctly understood, and his future course estimated. What he has to say shall be said now, and he hopes no necessity shall ever arise to cause him to make further public allusion to himself.

Born, reared and educated in the State of North Carolina, proud of his old mother, her staid, steady habits, and her great and universally acknowledged integrity, he calmly awaited her decision in 1861, determined to do that which a free Convention of her people should require. That Convention appealed to arms, and called for recruits. He responded to that call and for four years, endeavored faithfully and zealously to perform the duties assigned him in the several positions which he was called upon to fill. The Confederacy yielding to the power of overwhelming numbers, fell to rise no more. Every vestige of hope having vanished when the good and great Gen. Lee surrendered to Gen. Grant.

He submits to this stern decree of an overruling Providence, and returns to his allegiance to the Government of the United States with honesty of purpose, and without mental reservations of any kind.

Having taken the Oath of Amnesty, prescribed in President Johnson's Proclamation of May, 1865, he stands before the community to-day a loyal citizen. He knows that he will make none the worse citizen of the United States, for having faithfully served the cause of the Confederacy, till its final overthrow, and he has no regrets to express for his acts as a soldier of the State of North Carolina, and of the Confederacy, no tears to shed over his dead past.

North Carolina State Convention.

THIRD DAY.

OCTOBER 4, 1865.

The Convention was opened with prayer, by Rev. D. B. Nicholson, one of the delegates from Duplin.

The minutes of Tuesday were read and approved.

The resolution of Mr. Clark, of Craven, in regard to admitting reporters on the floor came up on its passage.

Mr. Settle moved to strike out the words "not exceeding five in number."

Mr. Donnell offered the following substitute:

Resolved, That stenographers, wishing to take down debates shall be admitted at the discretion of the President, who shall assign them such places on the floor or elsewhere to effect their object, as shall not interfere with the convenience of the Convention.

Mr. Settle withdrew his amendment, and the substitute of Mr. Donnell was adopted.

The resolution of Mr. King, of Lenoir, concerning the purchase of a national flag, was passed.

The resolution of Mr. Conigland, calling upon the Governor for information in regard to the specie valuation of the State war debt, was called up, when Mr. Grissom, of Granville, moved to lay on the table, but withdrew for Mr. Conigland to make an explanation. Mr. Conigland stated, that the resolution was offered not for the purpose of introducing any question of finance, in this Convention, especially any in regard to what is known as the war debt. He was opposed to the assumption of that debt by this body, but the people of the State wanted information on the subject.

Mr. Grissom's motion was then renewed and passed.

Mr. Jackson, of Randolph, introduced the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Governor be requested to communicate to this Convention, whether he has received any information from the President of the United States, relative to the State's assuming the debt contracted during the rebellion; for the prosecution of the war, before she can be admitted again into the Union; or whether he has received any information from the President, in his official capacity on the subject of the State war debt. Lies over.

Mr. Moore of Wake, chairman of the committee to prepare subject matters proper for the Convention, made in behalf of that committee a report in part as follows:

It appears to your committee that the business proper for the Convention will be most conveniently brought before the Convention under the heads of the following resolutions, which are reported simply as a plan of operations, and not as indicating an opinion on the merits of any of the resolutions:

1. Resolved, By the delegates in Convention assembled, that a committee be appointed, consisting of two members from each judicial district, to inquire into the propriety of limiting the number of Justices of the Peace for each county, and the most efficient mode of doing the same, and if they shall be of opinion that the number ought to be limited to report an ordinance to that effect.

2. Resolved further, That a committee of five be appointed to revise the constitution of the State, by collecting together and arranging under articles, sections and clauses, all such parts as belong to the same subject matter, with such changes in the language as are made necessary by the amendments adopted at various times, omitting all such parts as are obsolete or in conflict with the constitution of the United States, presenting the constitution as one instrument without essential change in substance.

3. Resolved further, That a committee of eleven be appointed to report the proper action of the Convention in reference to the secession ordinance of May 20th 1861.

4. Resolved further, That a committee of eleven be appointed to report the proper action of the Convention in reference to the abolition of slavery.

5. Resolved further, That a committee of two from each present Congressional district be appointed, whose duty it shall be to lay off the State into seven Congressional districts.

6. Resolved further, That a committee of eleven be appointed whose duty it shall be to report what acts of the Convention, the Legislature and the Courts, since 2nd May 1861, shall be declared in force by this convention.

7. Resolved further, That a committee of eleven be appointed whose duty it shall be to enquire and report what steps, if any, shall be taken by this convention in procuring a general amnesty for having participated in the late war.

8. Resolved further, That a committee of two from each Congressional district, as now constituted, be appointed, to whom shall be referred amendments to the constitution not otherwise referred.

Mr. Phillips moved that the rule be suspended in order that the report may be now considered, and it was agreed to. Mr. Phillips also moved that the report be received and concurred in, which motion prevailed.

The following ordinances were introduced and passed the first reading, and lie over under the rule—by Mr. Moore of Wake.

An Ordinance providing for the election of members of a General Assembly to be convened on the 3rd Monday of November 1865, and of representatives in congress:

Be it ordained by the delegates of the people of the State of North Carolina in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same:

1. That a General Assembly of the State shall be convened on the third Monday of November, 1865, the members whereof shall hold their places till the next election of such members, which shall be held on the first Thursday in August, 1866.

2. Be it further ordained, That the Provisional Governor is hereby directed to issue forthwith to the Sheriff of each county, a writ directing that an election for Senators and members of the House of Commons of such General Assembly shall be held on the first Thursday of November next, under the rules, regulations and provisions of chapter 52 of the Revised Code.

3. Be it further ordained, That immediately on the receipt of the writ, each Sheriff shall summons the Justices of the Peace of the Courts of Pleas and Quarter Sessions, to assemble at the Court House on a day appointed by him, which shall be early as practicable; and they, or so many as may assemble, shall appoint inspectors for each place of election, who shall be forthwith notified of their appointment by the Sheriff, and they shall conduct the elections and make returns of the polls in the manner prescribed in said chapter.

4. Be it further ordained, That the Sheriff, or Sheriffs shall proclaim the results of the elections and grant certificates to those elected, as provided in said chapter.

5. Be it further ordained, That each member and voter shall be qualified according to the now existing constitution of the State; provided, however, that no one shall be eligible to a seat, or be capable of voting, who, being free in all respects, shall not before the 29th of May, 1865, have voluntarily taken and subscribed the oath of Amnesty prescribed in the proclamation of President Lincoln, with the purpose to suppress the insurrection, and restore the authority of the United States, and thenceforward, shall have observed the same; or who shall not have taken and subscribed the oath of Amnesty prescribed in the proclamation of President Johnson bearing date 29th May, 1865. And who moreover, shall not in either case be of those who are excepted from the Amnesty granted by any of said proclamations. But provided also that all persons, who may have preferred petitions for pardons, shall be deemed to have been pardoned, if the fact of being pardoned shall be announced by the Governor, although the pardon may not have been received.

6. Be it further ordained, That for the purpose of ascertaining the qualifications of persons proposing to vote, the inspectors, may, and it shall be their duty, whenever the vote may be challenged, or they shall have cause to suspect that he is not duly qualified, examine him and others on oath touching the question.

7. Be it further ordained, That at the same time and places elections shall be held for representatives in Congress of the United States, in pursuance of chapter sixty-nine of the Revised Code, which shall be conducted under the rules and regulations therein prescribed for such elections, and the voters in said election shall be such only as shall be qualified to vote for members of the House of Commons. And the provisional Governor shall give the certificate required by the ninth section of said chapter.

By Judge Manly of Craven, an ordinance in relation to the authenticity of ordinances and other acts of the Convention. The ordinance provides for the proper attestation by the signatures of the President and Secretaries, and shall bear date from the day of their final passage.

By Mr. Jones of Rowan, an ordinance providing the election of municipal officers of the several cities and towns of the State at an early day.

By Mr. Jones of Rowan, an ordinance to repeal the ordinance of secession.

Whereas, A Convention of the people of North Carolina did, on the 20th of May 1861, pass an ordinance professing in terms to repeal the ordinance of 1787, and to sever the legal connections existing between the State of North Carolina and the Federal Union, commonly called the ordinance of Secession.

And whereas, While this Convention does not in any manner endorse the theory of secession, yet a due respect to the opinions of so many of our fellow-citizens, who did, and in order to leave no impediment in the way of a cordial rehabilitation of the State, renders the repeal of the aforesaid so-called ordinance of secession, if not necessary, at least expedient and proper:

Therefore, Be it ordained by the delegates of this Convention, in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same. That the aforesaid, so-called ordinance, ratified the 20th of May 1861, be, and the same is hereby repealed.

Mr. Love of Henderson, introduced a series of resolutions looking to important changes in the constitution, which we are compelled to omit today. They lie over under the rule.

The President announced the following committees under the resolutions from the Special Committee of nine, appointed to prepare business for the Convention.

Committee in reference to the Secession ordinance of 1861: Messrs Boyden, Rowan; Warren, Beaufort; Brooks, Pasquotank; Logan, Rutherford, Brown, Caswell; Nicholson, Duplin; Grissom, Granville; Rumley, Carteret; Berry, Orange; Patterson, Caldwell; and Starbuck, Forsyth.

Committee on abolition of Slavery: Messrs. Settle, Rockingham; Henry, Macon; Conigland, Halifax; Howard, Wilson; Norfleet, Edgecombe; Burgin, Haywood; Jackson, Randolph; Donnell, Beaufort; Russell, Brunswick; Stewart, Buncombe, and Faircloth, Wayne.

Committee to revise the Constitution Messrs. Moore of Wake; Eaton, Warren; Thompson, Bertie; Caldwell; Burke; and McCorkle, Stanly.

Committee upon General Amnesty. Messrs. Gilliam, Granville; Caldwel, Guilford; Clark, Craven; Cowper, Hertford; Furches, Davie; Gahagan, Madison; Hanrahan, Pitt; Jarvis, Currituck; Jones, Columbus; Lash, Forsythe; and Love, Jackson.

Mr. Boyden from the committee on the secession ordinance and Mr. Settle from the Committee on abolition of slavery asked permission to retire from the hall in order to hold immediate sessions of their respective committees, which was granted.

The committee on the ordinance of secession through the chairman, Hon. Nath. Boyden, introduced the following ordinance.

An Ordinance declaring null and void the Ordinance of May 20th 1861.

Be it ordained by the delegates of the good people of the State of North Carolina in Convention assembled, and it is hereby declared and ordained. That the ordinance of the Convention of the State of North Carolina, ratified on the 21st day of November 1789, which adopted and ratified the Constitution of the United States, is now and at all times since the adoption and ratification, thereof, hath been in full force and effect, notwithstanding the supposed ordinance of the 20th day of May 1861, declaring that the same be repealed, rescinded and abrogated, and the said supposed ordinance is now and hath been at all times, null and void.

Mr. Smith of Johnston moved that the rules be suspended, and the ordinance be put upon its second reading, which after some remarks against the motion, by Judge Manly and Hon. Bedford Brown, the motion was withdrawn.

The Convention, on motion of Mr. Caldwell of Burke, adjourned until 11 o'clock to-morrow.

It is needless to say that if there is a man in the Federal army against whom the Southern people have not the shadow of complaint, that man is Gen. U. S. Grant. The magnanimous and generous policy which has received his advocacy and support, from the moment that he met his great adversary under that humble roof in Appomattox, has disarmed all hostility among us. The Southern people would view any serious accident to him, above all, any acts of violence towards him, as a public calamity.—Pet. Index.

The Republican Banner, at Nashville, says that Hon. Wm. L. Yancey, of Alabama, met his death from injuries received in a personal collision with Ben. Hill of Georgia, during a secret session of the rebel Congress. He was thrown over a seat, and his spine injured to an extent that caused his death in a few months.

The war debt of Alabama amounts to $2,000,000. It is held by the citizens of the State, and forms no part of the Confederate debt property.

Connecticut Election.

WASHINGTON, D. C. Oct. 3rd., 1865.

Every county in the State of Connecticut except one, gave a majority against the negro suffrage amendment to the Constitution—majority about six thousand.

Episcopal Convention.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.

The General Convention of the Episcopal Church assembled in Philadelphia this morning in St. Luke's Church. All the Bishops of the Northern Dioceses were present excepting two.

Bishop Atkinson of North Carolina who was seated in the body of the Church, was invited into the chancel and cordially received by the Bishops and Clergy.

From Europe.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.

The Persia from Liverpool on the 22d, arrived at New York to day. The news in regard to the Fenian movement is of little interest. Several additional arrests are reported, but every thing quiet at the latest dates throughout Ireland.—Gunboats are cruising off Cork in search of vessels reported to have cleared from America with arms. The Times ridicules the Fenian movement.

Latest Liverpool accounts to 23rd speak of sales of 35,000 bales of cotton. Market excited. Advance from quarter to half penny. One hundred and eighty thousand bales are in the hands of speculators and exporters.

Petroleum firm. Sugar buoyant, advance six pence.

Liverpool Telegraph publishes a report that an American barque which arrived there was overhauled at sea by an armed steamer, carrying a Fenian flag.

At Queenstown on Sunday the Fenian prisoners were removed to Dublin to be tried. Arrests continue.

We are indebted to the Express Agent for late Petersburg papers from which we glean the following:

ALABAMA.—Gen. Thomas has suspended all service in the Episcopal Churches of Alabama, until such time as Bishop Wilmer and his clergy shall show a disposition to return to their allegiance to the United States.

Gen. Briscoe and a man named Lackey, a post sutler, both connected with the Union army, were arrested at Lynchburg the other day, on a charge of robbing the safe of the Quartermaster of $82,000. Briscoe alledged that he took it in possession to keep Lackey from stealing it. They are both in Washington.

It is said that the President has disposed of about 2000 pardon cases.

COTTON BURNED.--About thirty bales of cotton on the cars were burned at the Central Depot on yesterday. The cars were also destroyed.

The Freedmen's Convention adjourned on Tuesday night last. We know nothing of its late proceedings. The address of which we spoke on yesterday, although unexceptionable in its tone, is not entirely so in its statements.

The effect of the Convention upon the public has not been favorable. We judge its influence upon the blacks has been anything but good. The Convention and Legislature will do their duty to the blacks regardless of their efforts.

Hon. Kenneth Rayner.

Some days ago, a city cotemporary published the following quotation from the New York Tribune, accompanied with such remarks as led the reader to suppose that the statement of Mr. Rayner's views as given in the extract might be correct, and called upon Mr. Rayner we believe, to make public his opinion upon the subject. The following is the extract:

"Kenneth Rayner writes a letter from North Carolina to a friend in this city, in which he states, that unless the government compels the rebels to treat the freedmen with less cruelty there will certainly be a rising of the negroes, and bloody retaliation there. He is preparing a letter for publication, in which he will give a full account of the condition of affairs in the North State. Mr. Rayner's earnest efforts in the Fremont campaign in Pennsylvania, and elsewhere, will be remembered; and his consistent Unionism for the last four years, justifies the expectations of his many loyal friends throughout the country."

We felt confident at the time that Mr. Rayner had given vent to no such sentiments, and that the statement was of a piece with the numerous false allegations against the people of the South, furnished by a correspondent of the Associated Press.

We are glad to find that we were correct in our opinion. Mr. Rayner admits that he wrote a letter to an old Philadelphia friend now in Washington, in which he attempted to describe the sad and impoverished condition of the South. "But I said nothing of any cruelty with which the "freedmen" were treated, nor did I say any thing which could be so construed."

So it is that every single intimation or charge which has been made against any person or persons in the South, concerning cruelties to the blacks, has been promptly contradicted.

GENERAL NEWS.

COMPLETION OF THE MISSOURI PACIFIC RAILROAD —REGULAR TRAINS TO RUN TO-DAY.—Kansas City, September 30.—The first through train from St. Louis, over the Missouri Pacific Railroad, reached here this morning, bringing several distinguished persons, who will proceed on an excursion over the Union Pacific road to Lawrence, Kansas, this afternoon, and return to-morrow.

The Missouri Pacific railroad is now in complete running order its entire length, and regular through trains will commence moving on Monday next.

The Treasury Department has given notice that it will give in exchange for certificates of indebtedness compound interest notes, and treasury notes, to the extent of fifty millions six per cent. five-twenty year bonds, at 3 per cent. premium; that is to say, one hundred dollars of bonds for each one hundred and three in certificates and notes.

DEATH OF DR. WAYLAND.—Providence, Oct. 1.—The Rev. Dr. Francis Wayland, who was for more than twenty-eight years President of Brown University, was on Tuesday last prostrated by a paralytic stroke, and died on Saturday afternoon, at half-past five o'clock, aged 69 years.

They were in a very damaged condition.

For the Sentinel.

Rev. T. M. Jones--Louisburg Female College.

The deservedly popular and eminently successful President of Greensboro' Female College, whose name stands in the above caption, has lately purchased the Louisburg Female College with its appurtenances, and will re-open it for the instruction of young ladies in the course of a few weeks.

This item of our local news, will doubtless afford much pleasure to the friends of female education generally, throughout the South, and particularly to the numerous patrons of "The Greensboro' Female College," who have so frequently enquired since the disaster us event which laid that unrivalled institution in ashes "To what school shall we send our daughters now?"

Louisburg, in Franklin Co., is a beautiful little town about nine miles from the Franklinton depot, on the Raleigh and Gaston R. R. Hacks run daily between these two points, making regular connection with the trains going North and South.

Situated on a belt of granite, dividing the upper and lower sections of the State, and in a most salubrious climate, it presents the important additional advantage of a community which for cultivated intelligence, social refinement and the high tone of its Christian morals is seldom surpassed.

The college is a fine brick edifice, four stories high, surrounded by a delightful grove of oaks, through which avenues run in every direction. It was built only a few years since, and is admirably arranged, as it was expressly intended for the specific purpose to which it is appropriated.

I have given the foregoing particular statement of facts in relation to the Louisburg Female College, for the information and benefit of your readers, many of whom are my personal friends and acquaintances; and when in connection with this, it is announced that it will soon be open for the reception of young ladies, with the distinguished "President of Greensboro Female College" at its head, aided by a full corps of instructors, selected by himself, I am sure nothing more is needed to commend it to the favor of the intelligent public and secure for it an extensive patronage. R. S. MORAN.

Louisburg, N. C., Oct. 2nd, 1865.

Most of the property held as abandoned at Harper's Ferry by the Government, has been restored to its owners.

The editor of the Shoe and Leather Reporter was shown, a few days since, a new style for making shoes, a rival to the copper nail shoe—and which can be made equally cheap. The improvement consists of a brass screw inserted by machinery and cut off smoothly upon the outer sole. We see no reason why a pair of shoes screwed together would not be more durable than a pair nailed.

At a special party in Mobile recently there was some restraint between the Federal and Confederate officers present, till one of the latter, a fine singer, was called upon to sing a song, when he sung.—"The Star Spangled Banner" with much spirit.—The whole party joined in, and after that joviality and good feeling reigned.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—We learn that a Mr. Murray, connected with the Military Railroad between Raleigh and New Berne, was accidentally killed in New Berne yesterday morning, by being crushed between two cars. He was in Raleigh on Sunday, and left here on Monday morning.—Raleigh Standard.

PLANTATION FOR RENT.

I OFFER TO RENT FOR ONE YEAR, OR LEASE for five, my plantation in Pitt County, containing between eleven and twelve hundred acres, three hundred of which are well cleared and well adapted to the culture of cotton. A part of the land has been well marled and manured, and not having been cultivated in two years, will produce fine crops. The fencing has been destroyed, and the buildings much abused, and for this reason I will lease for five years for one fourth of the crop, provided that the plantation shall be returned in good repair, and that not less than 150 acres shall be planted in cotton any year of the lease. PLANTATION FOR RENT.

THE SUBSCRIBER, HAVING ENGAGED IN another business, wishes to rent out his plantation for the ensuing year. He does not want more than eight, nor less than six hands worked upon it. For this number of hands, the opportunity for making a crop is unusually fine. The chance for

TOBACCO AND OATS,

superior. There are seventy thousand tobacco hills which may be put in, that will make good tobacco without manure, and there is plenty of the very best tobacco land that may be cleared. The location is in a very fine neighborhood, three miles from Macon Depot on the Raleigh and Gaston Rail Road, and is one of the most healthy and delightful in the County. The residence contains six rooms, and there are all the necessary outhouses and a good orchard. He will sell everything necessary to carry on the farm—stock, crop, team, plantation implements, &c., &c. Address, or call upon

WEBSTER'S VEGETABLE HAIR INVIGORATOR,
IS LIKED BY ALL IN PREFERENCE TO ANY in market for ten reasons:
1. Because it invariably turns gray hair to its original color in the short space of four weeks.
2. Because it is clean and nice, and will not stain the skin.
3. Because it removes all Dandruff and Scurf, and is as harmless as water.
4. Because thousands are using it, and every body should.
5. Because it is peculiarly adapted to all classes, old and young.
6. Because it is purely vegetable—not a dye.
7. Because it kills hair eaters, and makes the hair luxuriant and soft.
8. Because it cures all humors and diseases of the scalp.
9. Because it arrests and prevents the hair from falling.
10. Because it is no humbug, but an honest article, as multitudes can testify; and if it don't prove as recommended, the money will be refunded.
☞ Be sure and use the Invigorator according to directions on the bottle. ☜

COOKE'S HOTEL

IS OPEN, and those who are travelling and wish comfortable quarters and good eating, stop at Cooke's. My terms will be as moderate as possible for the times. You will always find conveyance at the depot to take you to either of the Hotels in the City; but be sure to inquire for Cooke's, where you will get good to-ging, good eating, win-ral water to drink, and a pipe to smoke if you wish it.
I will be prepared to accommodate 15 or 20 members of the approaching Convention.
